

THE DIVINE LITURGY

Priest: O heavenly King, Comforter, the Spirit of truth, who art everywhere present and fillest all things, the Treasury of good things and Giver of life: Come, and abide in us, and cleanse us from every stain, and save our souls, O good One.

*During the Paschal season, 'Christ is risen...' is repeated three times instead of 'O heavenly King...'
From Ascension to Pentecost, the priest recites the Troparion of the Ascension.*

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will among men. (twice)

O Lord, thou shalt open my lips, and my mouth shall declare thy praise.
(once)

Blessed is the kingdom of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

The Trisagion Hymn

Priest: Let us pray to the Lord.

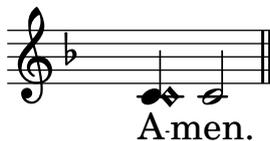

People:

Priest: O holy God, who restest in the holy place, who art hymned by the seraphim with the thrice-holy cry and glorified by the cherubim and worshipped by every heavenly power, who out of nothingness hast brought all things into being, who hast created man according to thine image and likeness and hast adorned him with thine every gift; who givest to him that asketh wisdom and understanding, who despiseth not the sinner but hast appointed repentance unto salvation, who hast vouchsafed unto us, thy humble and unworthy servants, even in this hour, to stand before the glory of thy holy altar and to offer the worship and praise which are due unto thee: Thyself, O Master, receive even from the mouth of us sinners the thrice-holy hymn and visit us in thy goodness. Pardon us every transgression both voluntary and involuntary; sanctify our souls and bodies; and grant us to serve thee in holiness all the days of our life, through the intercession of the holy Theotokos and of all the saints, who from the beginning of the world have been well-pleasing unto thee.

 For holy art thou, O our God, and unto thee we ascribe glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages.

People:

*The people stand and sing the Trisagion (or 'Thrice-Holy') Hymn.
On certain feasts we sing 'As many of you as have been baptized into Christ' instead.
On feasts of the Cross, we sing 'Before thy Cross we bow down in worship'.
A fuller form of the Trisagion is used for a Hierarchical Divine Liturgy.*

The Prayer Before the Gospel

Priest: Let us pray to the Lord. Lord have mercy.

Illuminate our hearts, O Master who lovest mankind, with the pure light of thy divine knowledge, and open the eyes of our mind to the understanding of thy gospel teachings; implant in us also the fear of thy blessed commandments, that trampling down all carnal desires, we may enter upon a spiritual manner of living, both thinking and doing such things as are well-pleasing unto thee. For thou art the Illumination of our souls and bodies, O Christ our God, and unto thee we ascribe glory, together with thine unoriginate Father and thine all-holy and good and life-giving Spirit, now and ever, and unto ages of ages. The Prayer of the Proskomedia Upon Placing the Divine Gifts on the Holy Table

John Chrysostom

Basil the Great

Priest: O Lord, God Almighty, who alone art holy, who dost accept a sacrifice of praise from those who call upon thee with their whole heart: Receive also the prayer of us sinners, and lead us to thy holy altar, and enable us to offer unto thee gifts and spiritual sacrifices for our sins and for the ignorance of the people, and make us worthy to find grace in thy sight, that our sacrifice may be acceptable unto thee and that the good Spirit of thy grace may rest upon us and upon these gifts here spread forth and upon all thy people:

Priest: O Lord, our God, who hast created us, and hast brought us into this life, who hast shown us ways of salvation, graciously bestowing upon us the revelation of heavenly mysteries: Thou art he who hath appointed us to this ministry by the power of thy Holy Spirit; graciously grant us, therefore, O Lord, to be servitors of thy new covenant, ministers of thy holy mysteries. Receive us who draw near to thy holy altar, according to the fulness of thy mercy, that we may be worthy to offer unto thee this rational and bloodless sacrifice for our own sins, and for the ignorance of the people, which do thou receive upon thy holy, most heavenly and spiritual altar as a savour of sweetness, and send down upon us in return the grace of thy Holy Spirit. Look upon us, O God, and behold this our worship, and receive it as thou didst receive the gifts of Abel, the sacrifices of Noah, the burnt-offerings of Abraham, the priestly offices of Moses and Aaron, the peace-offerings of Samuel. Even as thou didst receive at the hands of thy holy apostles this true worship, so also do thou in thy goodness, O Lord, receive from the hands of us sinners these gifts: that, having been accounted worthy to minister at thy holy altar, we may receive the recompense of wise and faithful stewards, in the fearful day of thy just requiting:

Priest: Through the compassions of thine only-begotten Son, with whom thou art blessed, together with thine all-holy and good and life-giving Spirit, now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

The Creed

All: I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible;

And in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the Son of God, the Only-begotten, begotten of the Father before all worlds, Light of Light, Very God of Very God, Begotten, not made; of one essence with the Father, by Whom all things were made:

Who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven, and was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary, and became man;

And was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate, and suffered and was buried;

And the third day He rose again, according to the Scriptures;

And ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of the Father;

And He shall come again with glory to judge the living and the dead, Whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and Giver of Life, Who proceedeth from the Father, Who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified, Who spake by the Prophets;

And I believe in One Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church.

I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins.

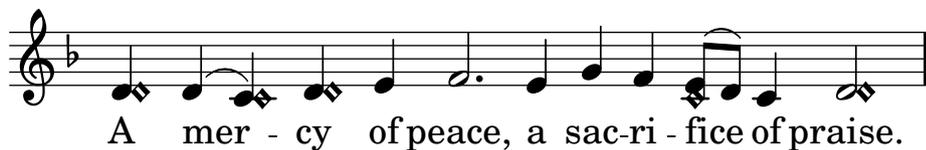

I look for the resurrection of the dead,

And the Life of the world to come. Amen.

THE HOLY ANAPHORA

John Chrysostom

Basil the Great

Priest: It is meet and right to hymn thee, to bless thee, to praise thee, to give thanks unto thee and to worship thee in every place of thy dominion; for thou art God ineffable, inconceivable, invisible, incomprehensible, ever-existing and eternally the same, thou and thine only-begotten Son and thy Holy Spirit. Thou it was who didst bring us from non-existence into being and when we had fallen away didst raise us up again, and didst not cease to do all things until thou hadst brought us up to heaven and hadst endowed us with thy kingdom which is to come.

Priest: O Existing One, Master, Lord, God, almighty and adorable Father: It is truly meet and right and befitting the majesty of thy holiness that we should praise thee, hymn thee, bless thee, worship thee, give thanks unto thee and glorify thee, the only truly existing God, and offer unto thee with contrite heart and spirit of humility this our rational worship; for thou art he that hath graciously bestowed upon us the knowledge of thy truth. And who is sufficient to speak of thy mighty acts, to make all thy praises to be heard, or to tell of all thy wonders at every season? O Master of all, Lord of heaven and earth, and of all creation both visible and invisible, who sittest upon the throne of glory and beholdest the depths, who art unoriginate, invisible, incomprehensible, uncircumscribed, immutable, the Father of our Lord: the great God and Savior Jesus Christ, our Hope, who is the Image of thy goodness, the Seal of equal type, in himself showing forth thee, the Father,

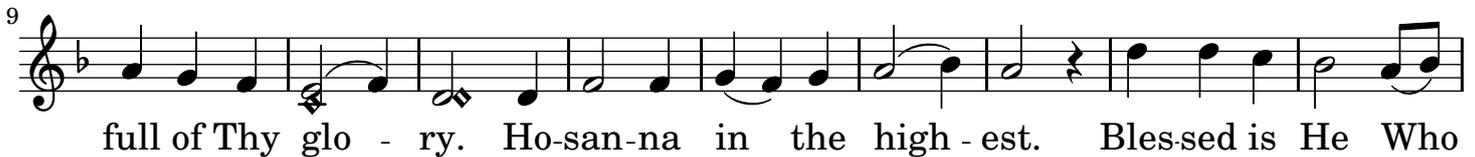

For all these things we give thanks unto thee, and to thine only-begotten Son and to thy Holy Spirit; for all things of which we know and of which we know not and for all the benefits bestowed upon us, both manifest and unseen. And we give thanks unto thee also for this ministry which thou dost vouchsafe to receive at our hands, even though there stand beside thee thousands of archangels and ten thousands of angels, the cherubim and the seraphim, six-winged, many-eyed, soaring aloft, borne on their wings:

the living Word, the true God, the Wisdom before all ages, the Life, Sanctification, Power, the true Light, through whom the Holy Spirit was manifested: the Spirit of truth, the Gift of adoption, the Pledge of the inheritance to come, the First-fruits of eternal good things, the life-giving Power, the Fountain of sanctification, by whom enabled every rational and intelligent creature doth serve thee and ascribe to thee perpetual praise, for all things are thy servants. Yea, angels and archangels, thrones, dominions, principalities, authorities, powers and the many-eyed cherubim praise thee; round about thee stand the six-winged seraphim; with two they cover their faces, with two their feet and with two they fly, continually crying out to one another with unceasing praises:

The Anamnesis

John Chrysostom

Priest: With these blessed powers we also, O Master who lovest mankind, cry aloud and say: Holy art thou and all-holy, thou and thine only-begotten Son and thy Holy Spirit; holy art thou and all-holy and magnificent is thy glory, who hast so loved thy world as to give thine only-begotten Son, that all who believe in him should not perish but have everlasting life,

Basil the Great

Priest: With these blessed powers, O Master who lovest mankind, we sinners also do cry aloud and say: Holy art thou, of a truth, and all-holy, and there are no bounds to the majesty of thy holiness, and just art thou in all thy works, for in righteousness and true judgment hast thou ordered all things for us. When thou hadst fashioned man, taking him from the dust of the earth, and hadst honoured him with thine own image, O God, thou didst set him in the paradise of plenty, promising him life-eternal and the enjoyment of everlasting good things in keeping thy commandments. But when he disobeyed thee, the true God, who had created him, and was led astray by the guile of the serpent and rendered subject to death through his own transgressions, thou didst banish him, in thy righteous judgment, O God, from paradise into this world, and didst turn him again to the earth from which he was taken, providing for him the salvation of regeneration, which is in thy Christ himself. Yet thou didst not turn thyself away forever from thy creature whom thou hast made, O good One, neither didst thou forget the work of thy hands; but thou didst visit him in diverse manners, through thy tender mercies. Thou didst send forth prophets; thou didst perform mighty works by thy holy ones who, in every generation, were well-pleasing unto thee; thou didst speak to us by the mouths of thy servants the prophets, who fortold unto us the salvation which was to come; thou didst give us the Law as an aid; thou didst appoint guardian angels. And when the fullness of time was come, thou didst speak unto us through thy Son himself, by whom also thou madest the ages, who, being the Brightness of thy glory and the express image of thy person and upholding all things by the word of his power, thought it not robbery to be equal to thee, the God and Father. But though who, when he had come and had fulfilled all the dispensation for us, in the night in which he was betrayed or, rather, gave himself up for the life of the world, took bread in his holy and immaculate and blameless hands; and when he had given thanks and blessed it and hallowed it and broken it, he gave it to his holy disciples and apostles, saying:

he was God before all the ages, yet he appeared upon earth and dwelt among men and was incarnate of a holy virgin and emptied himself, taking on the form of a servant, becoming conformed to the body of our lowliness, that he might make us conformable to the image of his glory. For as by man sin entered into the world, and by sin death, so it seemed good unto thine only-begotten Son, who is in the bosom of thee, the God and Father, to be born of a woman, the holy Theotokos and ever-virgin Mary; to be born under the Law, that he might condemn sin in his flesh, that they who were dead in Adam might be made alive in him thy Christ. And becoming a citizen of this world and giving commandments of salvation, he released us from the delusion of idols and brought us into a knowledge of thee, the true God and Father, having won us unto himself for his own people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation; and having purified us by water and having sanctified us by the Holy Spirit, he gave himself a ransom to death, whereby we were held, sold into bondage under sin. And having descended into hades through the cross, that he might fill all things with himself, he loosed the pains of death and rose again on the third day, making a way for all flesh unto the resurrection from the dead, for it was not possible that the Author of life should be held by corruption, that he might be the First-fruits of those who have fallen asleep, the First-born from the dead, that he might be in all things the first among all. Ascending into heaven, he sat down at the right hand of thy majesty on high; and he shall come again to render unto every man according to his works. And he hath left with us, as memorials of his saving passion, these things which we have set forth according to his commandments. For when he was about to go to his voluntary and ever-memorable and life-giving death, in the night in which he gave himself up for the life of the world, he took bread in his holy and immaculate hands; and when he had shown it unto thee, the God and Father, and given thanks and blessed it and hallowed it and broken it,

John Chrysostom

Priest: For the holy Prophet, Forerunner and Baptist John; the holy glorious and all-laudible apostles; N. (saint of the day), whose memory we celebrate, and all thy saints, at whose supplications visit us, O God.

And be mindful of all those who have fallen asleep before us in the hope of resurrection unto life eternal, NN., and grant them rest, O our God, where the light of thy countenance watcheth over them.

Basil the Great

Priest: The holy Prophet, Forerunner and Baptist John; the holy glorious and all-laudible apostles; N. (saint of the day), whose memory we celebrate, and all thy saints, at whose supplications visit us, O God. And be mindful of all those who have fallen asleep before us in the hope of resurrection unto life eternal, NN., and grant them rest, where the light of thy countenance watcheth over them. And again we pray thee: Be mindful, O Lord, of thy holy, catholic and apostolic Church, which is to the ends of the world; and give peace unto her whom thou hast purchased with the precious Blood of thy Christ; and establish thou this holy house, even unto the ends of the age. Be mindful, O Lord, of those who have set before thee these gifts, and those for whom and through whom and in behalf of whom they have offered them. Be mindful, O Lord, of those who bear fruit and do good works in thy holy churches and who remember the poor; requite them with thy rich and heavenly gifts; give them things heavenly for things earthly, things eternal for things temporal, things incorruptible for things corruptible.

Be mindful, O Lord, of those in the deserts, the mountains and in caverns and pits of the earth. Be mindful, O Lord, of all those who live in virginity and reverence, in asceticism and who lead a godly way of life. Be mindful, O Lord, of all civil authorities and of our armed forces; grant them a secure and lasting peace; speak good things into their hearts concerning thy Church and all thy people, that we in their tranquility may lead a calm and peaceful life in all reverence and godliness. Establish the good in thy goodness, and make good the evil by thy benevolence. Be mindful, O Lord, of the people here present and of those who are absent for reasonable cause, and have mercy upon them and upon us, according to the multitude of thy mercy. Fill their treasuries with every good thing; maintain their marriage-bond in peace and concord; rear the infants; guide the young; support the aged; encourage the faint-hearted.

And again we beseech thee: Be mindful, O Lord, of every bishop of the Orthodox, who rightly divideth the word of thy truth, of all the presbytery, the diaconate in Christ and every priestly and monastic order.

Collect the scattered, and turn them from their wandering astray, and unite them to thy holy, catholic and apostolic Church. Set at liberty those who are vexed by unclean spirits; travel with those who journey by land and sea and air; defend the widows; protect the orphans; free the captives; heal the sick; and be mindful, O God, of those who are under judgment, in the mines, in exile, in bitter servitude, in every tribulation, necessity and danger, and all who beseech thy great loving-kindness; and be mindful, O Lord our God, of those who love us and those who hate us and those who have enjoined us, unworthy though we be, to pray for them, and of all thy people, and upon them all pour out thy rich mercy, granting to all their petitions which are unto salvation. And those whom we through ignorance or forgetfulness or the multitude of names have not remembered, do thou thyself remember, O God who knowest the time of life and name of each and knowest every man even from his mother's womb.

And again we offer unto thee this rational worship for the whole world, for the holy, catholic and apostolic Church, for those who live in chastity and lead a godly way of life and for all civil authorities and our armed forces; grant them, O Lord, peaceful times, that we in their tranquility may lead a calm and peaceful life in all reverence and godliness.

For thou, O Lord, art the Helper of the helpless, the Hope of the hopeless, the Saviour of the storm-tossed, the Haven of the voyager, the Physician of the sick. Be thou thyself all things to all men, O thou who knowest every man, his petition, his dwelling place and his need. Deliver, O Lord, this city and every city and countryside from famine, plague, earthquake, flood, fire, the sword, foreign invasion and civil war.

 Among the first be mindful, O Lord, of our metropolitan, N., and our bishop, N., whom do thou grant unto thy holy churches in peace, safety, honor, health and length of days, and rightly dividing the word of thy truth.

Preparation for Holy Communion

Priest: Asking for the unity of the faith and the communion of the Holy Spirit, let us commend ourselves and each other and all our life unto Christ our God.

People:

Priest: Unto thee we commend our whole life and our hope and we beseech thee and pray thee and supplicate thee:

Priest: O our God, the God of salvation, do thou teach us how we may worthily give thanks unto thee for thy benefits, which thou hast ever bestowed and yet doth bestow among us. Do thou, O our God, who receivest these gifts, purify us from every defilement of flesh and spirit; teach us to perfect holiness in thy fear, that we, receiving a portion of thy holy things in the witness of a pure conscience toward thee, may be made one with the holy Body and Blood of thy Christ and that, having received them worthily, we may have Christ abiding in our hearts and may become a temple of thy Holy Spirit.

Vouchsafe us to partake of thy heavenly and dread mysteries of this sacred and spiritual table, with a pure conscience, unto forgiveness of sins, unto pardon of transgressions, unto communion of the Holy Spirit, unto inheritance of the kingdom of heaven, unto boldness toward thee, not unto judgment nor unto condemnation:

Yea, O our God, cause also that none of us may be guilty of these thy dread and heavenly mysteries or infirm in soul or in body through an unworthy partaking; but enable us, even unto our last breath, worthily to receive a portion of thy holy things, as a support upon the road to life eternal and as an acceptable defense at the fearful judgment seat of thy Christ. That we also, together with all the saints who, in all the ages, have been well-pleasing unto thee, may be made partakers of thine everlasting good things, which thou hast prepared for those who love thee, O Lord.

 And vouchsafe, O Master, that with boldness and without condemnation we may dare to call upon thee, the heavenly God, as Father and to say:

Repeat the above or other appointed Communion Hymn until the clergy have communed and are ready to bring out the chalice for the laity.

Just before that happens, sing 'Alleluia' in the same tone as the Communion hymn being sung at that point. The following is in Tone 8, concluding the hymn for Sundays, above.

Priest: With fear of God and faith and love, draw near.
People:

Resume singing the Communion Hymn(s) until all who are prepared have partaken.

A Note Regarding Holy Communion

Since we understand Communion to mean that we have all things in common, sharing an identical Faith, only those who are members of the Orthodox Church and who have prepared themselves through prayer, fasting and recent confession may participate in Holy Communion. We invite all, however, to partake of the blessed bread which is distributed at the dismissal. Please see the pastor for inquiries on how to become a member.

Who is so Great a God as Our God

Byzantine Tone 7

Texts for Chanting

Psalm 33

I will bless the LORD at all times; his praise shall always be in my mouth.

My soul shall make its boast in the LORD; the humble shall hear and be glad.

O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt His Name together.

I sought the LORD, and He heard me, and delivered me from all my fears.

Look to Him and be radiant, and your faces shall not be ashamed.

This poor man cried, and the LORD heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles.

The angel of the LORD will encamp around those who fear Him, and will deliver them.

O, taste and see that the LORD is good; blessed is the man who trusts in Him!

O, fear the LORD, you His saints! There is no want to those who fear Him.

The rich have become poor and hungry;
but those who seek the LORD shall not lack any good thing.

Keep your tongue from evil, and your lips from speaking deceit.

Depart from evil and do good; seek peace and pursue it!

The eyes of the LORD are on the righteous, and His ears open to their cry.

The righteous cry out, and the LORD hears, and delivers them out of all their troubles.

The LORD is near to those who have a broken heart, and saves those of contrite spirit.

Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the LORD delivers him out of them all.
He guards all his bones; not one of them is broken.

The LORD redeems the soul of His servants.
None of those who trust in Him shall be condemned.

The Beatitudes

In thy kingdom remember us, O Lord, when thou comest in thy kingdom!

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied.

Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God.

Blessed are those persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when they revile and persecute you and speak all kinds of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

Rejoice and be exceedingly glad: for great is your reward in heaven.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

Both now and ever, and unto the ages of ages. Amen.
Remember us, O Lord, when thou comest in thy kingdom.

Remember us, O Master, when thou comest in thy kingdom.

Remember us, O Holy One, when thou comest in thy kingdom.

The Prayer at the Consumption of the Holy Gifts

John Chrysostom

Priest: O Christ our God, who art thyself the Fulfillment of the Law and the Prophets, who didst fulfill all the dispensation of the Father: fill our hearts with joy and gladness, always, now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Basil the Great

Priest: The mystery of thy dispensation, O Christ our God, hath been accomplished and perfected, as far as is in our power, for we have had the memorial of thy death, we have seen the type of thy resurrection, we have been filled with thine unending life, we have enjoyed thine inexhaustible delight, which also in the age to come be well-pleased to vouchsafe us all, through the grace of thine unoriginate Father, and of thy holy and good and life-giving Spirit, now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Special services - like Trisagion prayers for the departed, removal of marriage crowns, processions, etc. - may take place at this point.

The Dismissal

Priest: Let us pray to the Lord.

People:

Priest: The blessing of the Lord and his mercy come upon you through his divine grace and love toward mankind, always, now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

People:

Priest: Glory to thee, O Christ our God and our Hope, glory to thee.

People:

Priest: May (insert the appointed dismissal phrase) Christ, our true God, through the intercessions of his all-immaculate and all-blameless holy Mother; by the might of the precious and life-giving cross; by the protection of the honorable bodiless powers of heaven; at the supplication of the honorable, glorious Prophet, Forerunner and Baptist John; of the holy, glorious and all-laudible apostles; of our father among the saints (John Chrysostom, archbishop of Constantinople; or Basil the Great, archbishop of Caesarea); of the holy, glorious and right victorious martyrs; of our venerable and God-bearing fathers; of N. (patron saint of the church); of the holy and righteous ancestors of God, Joachim and Anna; of N. (the saints of the day) whose memory we celebrate and of all the saints: have mercy on us, and save us, forasmuch as he is good and loveth mankind.

Through the prayers of our holy fathers, Lord Jesus Christ our God, have mercy on us and save us.

People:

DURING THE PASCHAL SEASON

Priest: Christ is risen!

People: Truly, he is risen!

This exclamation and response are repeated twice more.

Priest: Glory to his holy, third-day resurrection.

People: We adore his third-day resurrection.

Priest: Christ is risen from the dead, trampling down death by death,
and to those in the tombs

People: bestowing life.

*Paschal greeting / response

TRISAGION PRAYERS OF MERCY FOR THE DEPARTED

When performed in conjunction with the Divine Liturgy, this service begins after the prayer behind the amvon and 'Blessed be the Name of the Lord', with the chanting of the troparion for the departed.

When performed apart from the Divine Liturgy, it begins:

Priest: Blessed is our God, always, now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

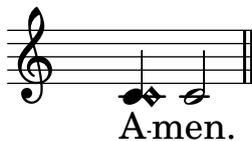

People:

Holy God... Glory and Both now... All-holy Trinity... Lord, have mercy (thrice)... Glory and Both now... Our Father...

Priest: For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

Troparia for the Departed

Tone 4

Priest (or Chanter): With the spirits of the righteous made perfect, give rest to the soul(s) of thy servant(s), O Saviour, and preserve it (them) in that life of blessedness which is with thee, O thou who lovest mankind.

In the place of thy rest, O Lord, where all thy saints repose, give rest also to the soul(s) of thy servant(s), for thou only lovest mankind.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

Thou art our God, who descended into hades and loosed the bonds of those who were there; thyself give rest also to the soul(s) of thy servant(s).

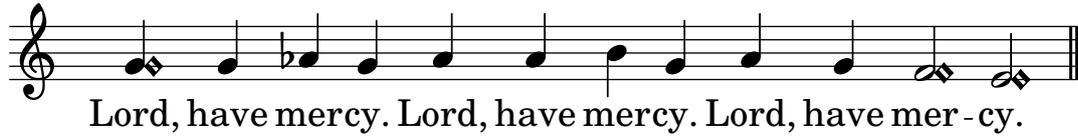

Both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

O Virgin, alone pure and immaculate, who without seed didst give birth to God, intercede for the salvation of his (her, their) soul(s).

The Ektenia for the Departed

Priest: Have mercy on us, O God, according to thy great mercy, we pray thee, hear-ken and have mercy.

People:

(Usual Service)

(Soul Saturday)

Priest: Again we pray the repose of the soul(s) of the servant(s) of God, N. (NN.), departed this life; and that thou wilt pardon his (her, their) every transgression, both voluntary and involuntary.

Priest: Again we pray for the repose of all pious Orthodox Christians who have fallen asleep in the hope of the resurrection unto life everlasting, kings, patriarchs, bishops, priests, deacons, hieromonks, hierodeacons, monks, nuns, parents, forebears, grandparents, great-grandparents, children, spouses, youths, brethren, and all our kinsmen, from the beginning until the end of time; and that thou wilt pardon their every transgression, both voluntary and involuntary.

People:

Priest: That the Lord God will establish his (her, their) soul(s) where the just repose.

People:

Priest: The mercies of God, the kingdom of heaven and forgiveness of his (her, their) sins, let us ask of Christ our immortal King and our God.

People:

THE PRAYER FOR THE DEPARTED

Priest: Let us pray to the Lord.

People:

Lord, have mercy.

(Usual Service) Priest:

O God of spirits and of all flesh, who hast trampled down death and made powerless the devil and given life to thy world: Do thou, thyself O Lord, give rest to the soul(s) of thy departed servant(s), N. (NN.), in a place of brightness, a place of verdure, a place of repose, whence all sickness, sorrow and sighing have fled away. Pardon every sin which he (she, they) hath (have) comitted, whether by word or deed or thought;

[People: 'Forgive him (her, them)'] for thou art good and lovest mankind, for there is no man who liveth and sinneth not, for thou only art beyond sin, and thy righteousness is to all eternity, and thy word is truth.

(Soul Saturday) Priest:

O God of spirits and of all flesh, who hast trampled down death and made powerless the devil and given life to thy world: Do thou, thyself O Lord, give rest to the souls of thy departed servants, all pious Orthodox Christians who have fallen asleep in the Lord from all the ends of the world, kings, patriarchs, bishops, priests, deacons, hieromonks, hierodeacons, monks, nuns, parents, forebears, grandparents, great-grandparents, children, spouses, youths, brethren, and all our kinsmen, in a place of brightness, a place of verdure, a place of repose, whence all sickness, sorrow and sighing have fled away. Pardon every sin which they have comitted, whether by word or deed or thought; for thou art good and lovest mankind, for there is no man who liveth and sinneth not, for thou only art beyond sin, and thy righteousness is to all eternity, and thy word is truth.

(For Children) Priest:

O Lord, who watchest over little children in this present life and in the life which is to come because of their simplicity of mind and innocence, satisfying them in Abraham's bosom and bringing them to brightly radiant places where the spirits of the righteous dwell: Receive in peace the soul of thy servant, the child, N., for thou thyself hast said: Suffer the little children to come unto me, for of such is the kingdom of heaven.

Priest: May thy (your) memory be eternal, O our ever-memorable brother (sister, brethren) who art (are) worthy of blessedness.

People:

Priest: Through the prayers of our holy fathers, Lord Jesus Christ our God, have mercy on us.
